Thursday, March 7
Prospective students are invited to arrive at their convenience. If you are staying with a student host, please make arrangements with your host. Many hosts will not be available until late in the afternoon or evening.

If you arrive early in the day to have time to explore Chicago or the campus on your own, you can store luggage in the department office until 4:30. Please pick up your luggage before attending the workshops.

If you arrive earlier on Thursday, feel free to stop by the department office to pick up your packet and print/drop off your reimbursement materials. Packets will also be available at the morning program on Friday.

Late Afternoon Workshops – Choice of Two

Information on graduate workshops https://history.uchicago.edu/content/workshops

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Workshop</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Presenter</th>
<th>Topic</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4:30 pm</td>
<td>U.S. History Workshop</td>
<td>Social Science Research 224, 1126 E. 59th St.</td>
<td>Serena Covkin, Graduate Student, Department of History</td>
<td>“A Policeman in Every Home': Contraception, The Cold War, and the Constitutional Right to Privacy”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4:30 pm</td>
<td>Transnational Approaches to Modern Europe</td>
<td>Social Science Research 201, 1126 E. 59th St.</td>
<td>Alice Goff, Assistant Professor, Department of History</td>
<td>“Uncertain Saints: Repatriating Sacred Patrimony in Post-Napoleonic Prussia”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

6:30 or 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm FACULTY/STUDENT DINNERS
prospective students attend dinners in faculty homes with faculty, other prospective students and small groups of current students in related fields.
Field dinner information is available on personalized itineraries.
Friday, March 8

All events in Social Science Research Building, 1126 E. 59th St.

8:30-9:00 am BREAKFAST
hot buffet served in Social Science Tea Room, Room 201

Morning events in the John Hope Franklin Room, Room 224

9:00-9:15 am DEPARTMENT WELCOME and INTRODUCTIONS
Prof. Adrian Johns, Department Chair; Prof. Jonathan Levy, Admissions Chair

9:15-10:00 am HISTORY FACULTY PANEL
Mauricio Tenorio, Samuel N. Harper Professor of History, Romance Languages and Literatures and the College
Tara Zahra, Homer J. Livingston Professor of East European History and the College
Michael Rossi, Assistant Professor of The History of Medicine, The Conceptual and Historical Studies of Sciences, and The College

Break
men’s restroom: 3rd floor, women’s restroom 1st and 4th floor

GRADUATE PROGRAM OVERVIEW AND CAMPUS RESOURCES
Sonja Rusnak, Graduate Affairs Administrator

Break

11:00-11:45 am ALUMNI PANEL
Korey Garibaldi (PhD 2016), Assistant Professor, Department of American Studies, University of Notre Dame
Emily Remus (PhD 2014), Assistant Professor, Department of History, University of Notre Dame
Basil Salem (PhD 2016), Collegiate Assistant Professor, Social Sciences, The University of Chicago
Moderator: Jonathan Levy (PhD 2008), Professor, Department of History, The University of Chicago

Lunch – Choice of Two

12:00-1:15 pm LUNCH with current Graduate Students
Rohan Chatterjee, Nick Foster, Trish Kohle, Julia Mead, Surabhi Pudasani
Lunch buffet in the Social Sciences Tea Room (Room 201) please bring your food to the John Hope Franklin Room (Room 224) for the panel discussion.

12:00-2:00 pm Empires and Atlantics Forum
Social Science Research Building 305
Presenter: Peter Mancall, Andrew W. Mellon Professor of the Humanities, University of Southern California
“The Origins of the American Economy”
Discussant: Nicholas Johnson, Department of History
Lunch is served at the forum or you may take lunch from the History Day lunch buffet with you. (Please note that you may have faculty appointments scheduled starting at 1:15. The workshop coordinators are aware you may need to depart early for appointments.)
1:15-4:30 pm FACULTY APPOINTMENTS
Individual appointments are arranged for prospective students with faculty. Please see individual schedule for times. See office location sheet in packet for office locations.

• You can relax between meetings in the Social Science Tea Room (201). If you have extra time and are looking for a quiet place to read, we recommend the Harper Library Reading Room located in the building next to Social Sciences on the third floor.

• Between meetings we recommend that you leave any valuables that you don’t plan to carry with you in the History Department and pick them up before the reception. Please do not leave items in Room 224 as we will be setting up for the reception.

• If you have travel receipts or forms to print, please stop by the History office for assistance in the afternoon.

4:30-6:00 pm DEPARTMENT RECEPTION in Social Sciences 224
Faculty and current students are invited to join the prospective students for a light reception.

6:00 pm SOCIAL EVENT with CURRENT STUDENTS
“The Pub” in Ida Noyes Hall, 1212 E 59th St, Chicago, IL 60637
Please let the student at the door know you are there for the History event. The door fee is covered by the History Graduate Student Association.
Pub food and drinks provided by the History Graduate Student Association.